

The Herald and News

A Charity Bazaar.

The Bachelor Maid club is arranging for a Charity Bazaar to be held in the armory next Friday evening. Plenty of flowers and fancy work for sale. Small stalls will serve refreshments. There will be a Gypsy tent and a fortune teller, and many other things. A tallies donkey and a grab bag will furnish fun for the little folks. All are invited to come and bring their friends. No charge for admission.

Bicycle Awarded.

The Newberry Steam Laundry Company on Friday afternoon held the drawing for the bicycle that they have been advertising to give away for the past few months. There were about 7,000 numbers in the box, which were all shaken up and one drawn therefrom, which proved to be No. 8,355, the duplicate being held by Mr. D. S. Hallwanger, of Newberry College, who was awarded the wheel.

Noted.

Camp "James D. Nance, No. 338, U. C. V.," will meet in the Court House on Saturday, February 15th instant, at 11 o'clock sharp. Business of importance to transact.

By order: J. W. GARY, Commander.
O. L. SCHUMPERT, A. A. 21

A Good Selection.

The young ladies of the Columbia Female College have invited Dr. Geo. B. Cromer, President of Newberry College, to deliver the literary address at the commencement in June. Dr. Cromer has accepted the invitation and the young ladies may expect something above the ordinary.

Going to California.

Clerk of Court Goggans received a telegram from his brother-in-law, Mr. R. T. Long, yesterday, who is in Anderson, having been there for some time in the electrical business, stating that he will arrive in Newberry tonight, and after spending a few days here with relatives, will leave the first of next week for California, where he has a position with his brother, Mr. Jake Long. Newberry boys can't but succeed.

A Thousand Dollars Thrown Away.

Mr. W. W. Baker, of Plainville, Neb., writes: "My wife had lung trouble for over fifteen years. We tried a number of doctors and spent over a thousand dollars without any relief. She was very low and I lost all hope, when a friend suggested trying Foley's Honey and Tar, which I did; and thanks be to this great remedy it saved her life. She is stronger and enjoys better health than she has ever known in ten years. We shall never be without Foley's Honey and Tar and would ask those afflicted to try it." Glider & Weeks.

A South Carolina Beauty.

Daily in both of the Atlanta papers, the Constitution and the Journal, appear photographs of beautiful Southern women. In almost nine cases out of ten these photographs—we do not say these women—are not beautiful. But one day last week the Journal hit the nail square on the head by presenting a photograph of a rarely beautiful of a young girl, rarely beautiful—Miss Myrtle Schumpert, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schumpert, of Newberry. Now if Miss Schumpert were purely a girl of Newberry blood, she would still be our beloved neighbor, but when we call to mind that her mother is a worthy scion of the old Revolutionary Edgewood Saluda Coleman family, we feel like putting into this matter a strong claim for Edgewood. Remember that for some time past her aunt, Mrs. J. M. Berry, on her homeward flight could not stop at Edgewood? The old Bacon home would lift up all its arms at her approach—Edgewood Chronicle.

Seven Years in Bed.

"Will wonders ever cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. J. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. The lady had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility. "Three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in three months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from headache, backache, nervousness, fainting and dizziness will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Satisfaction is guaranteed at all druggists. Only 50c.

WASH CARWILE CAPTURED.

Sheriff Buford captured a Negro who shot his brother in 1895, Two Years Before His Term of Office.

Sheriff Buford, with the assistance of Mr. E. K. Bendaugh, of Prosperity, last week succeeded in capturing Wash Carwile, Jr., a negro who has been evading arrest since July, 1895, two years before Sheriff Buford went into office. Wash Carwile shot and killed his brother, Buford Carwile, on Sunday, July 21, 1895, on E. Y. Morris's plantation, a few miles from this city.

From the testimony taken at the coroner's inquest it seems that the two brothers fell out about one having on the other's vest which resulted in the shooting. Immediately after the shooting Wash left for parts unknown and he succeeded for nearly seven years in dodging the officers. Since Sheriff Buford went into office he has heard of the negro in Washington, Virginia, and in several different parts of the State, and last week finally located him in Saluda and went over and got him. The Sheriff is a determined officer and when he gets on track of a criminal he generally gets him in the end.

A Night Alarm.

Worse than an alarm of fire at night is the brassy cough of croup, which sounds like the children's death knell and it means death unless something is done quickly. Foley's Honey and Tar never fails to give instant relief and quickly cures the worst forms of croup. Mrs. J. Corlier, of Manning, Ky., writes: "My three year old child had a severe case of croup; the doctor said she could not live. I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar, the first dose gave quick relief and saved her life." Refuse substitutes. Glider & Weeks.

People who attempt to get even with each other are apt to remain at odds.

VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

Col. C. J. Purcell spent a few days in Columbia last week.

Dr. F. J. Moore Jr. of Columbia, spent Sunday in the city.

Mr. Cole L. Bleas came up yesterday from Columbia where he has been on a business trip.

Dr. D. L. Booser, Jr. is in Atlanta attending the Southern branch of the National Dental Association.

The snow reached a depth of about 4 inches here last Friday night. We have plenty of it with us yet.

Misses Lena Moseley and Myra Mower spent yesterday at their home in Newberry.—The State, 17.

It is very important that all property be returned for taxes by Thursday of this week. Penalty will be attached after that date.

Mrs. J. H. Hair and little daughter, Marie, left last week to visit the family of Dr. Hunter in Charleston, and to visit the Exposition.

Miss Maybell Stewart, of Prosperity, has our thanks for an invitation to attend the recital of her music pupils at 8:30 o'clock on the evening of the 28th instant.

Mr. Luther Fellers killed a chicken hen last Saturday for his Sunday dinner, and Mrs. Fellers weighed it after it had been dressed and it weighed eight pounds. Who can beat it?

The County Board of control will elect a beer dispenser for the town of Newberry on March 24th. Applications must be in the hands of the board by Monday, March 3rd. See notice.

Rev. Dr. S. T. Hallman returned home from Spartanburg yesterday, where he has been engaged in his missionary work. He has met with success in Spartanburg and says the outlook is very encouraging.

Mr. John Parks, accompanied by his friend, Mr. Crawford, of Patchogue, N. Y. is visiting his sister, Mrs. Edward Scholtz. They arrived in the city Friday and are making a tour of the South, taking in the Charleston Exposition.

Mr. M. J. Rouse, of Chicago, Ill., spent several days in the city last week with his relatives, Messrs. P. E. and John Scott. Mr. Rouse before returning to Chicago will visit the Charleston Exposition, Savannah, and will take a trip to Cuba. He enjoyed his few days stay here.

Stepped Into Live Coals.

"When a child I burned my foot frightfully," writes W. H. Eads, of Jonesville, Va., "which caused horrible sores for 30 years, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured me after everything else failed. Infallible for Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Sores Bruises and Piles. Sold by all druggists. 25c."

ST. VALENTINE'S GERMAN.

Given in the Armory Friday Evening—A Delightful Occasion—A List of Those in Attendance.

The annual St. Valentine's german was given in the Armory Friday night. There were about thirty couples in attendance, and it was probably one of the most beautiful and thoroughly enjoyed german ever given here. The ladies were handsomely costumed and beautiful, as Newberry ladies always are, and taken altogether, the occasion was a most delightful one.

The german was gracefully led by Mr. J. C. Wilson, Jr. Chaperones: Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Piper, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schumpert, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Schumpert, Mr. and Mrs. E. Scholtz, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Evans.

The following is a list of the couples in attendance:

Miss Nancy Pool with Mr. J. E. Renwick.
Miss Azile Pool with Dr. W. E. Pelham, Jr.
Miss Bessie Gilder with Mr. J. C. Wilson, Jr.
Miss Margaret Johnstone with Dr. D. L. Booser, Jr.
Miss Lilla Johnstone with Mr. O. O. Copeland.
Miss Laura Vance, Clinton, with Mr. C. P. Pelham.
Miss Janie Vance, Clinton, with Mr. Vance Irby.
Miss Clara Vance, Louisiana, with Mr. W. C. Schenck.
Miss Gordon Weeks with Mr. G. F. Wear.
Miss Neville Pope with Mr. Jas. N. McCaughrin.
Miss Julia Paisley with Mr. Jas. K. Aull.
Miss Vinnie Mae Wilson with Mr. J. B. Booser.

In Case of Accident. Accidents will happen. Mother strains her back lifting a sofa. Father is hurt in the shop. Children are forever falling and bruising themselves. There is no preventing these things, but their worst consequences are averted with Perry Davis' Painkiller. No other remedy approaches it for the relief of sore strained muscles. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'.

THE COURT.

THE CRIMINAL WORK BEGUN AND THE BUSINESS MOVE-OFF SMOOTHLY.

Judge Ernest Gary presiding—His charge to the Grand Jury—Solicitor Sease handed out bills—Stenographer Campbell sick and absent.

The sessions court convened yesterday morning. The jurors and witnesses were late in getting into court, which delayed the court considerably in getting down to business. The Solicitor had to issue several bench warrants for witnesses, before they could be gotten into court, and His Honor alluded to this fact in his charge to the grand jury.

Judge Ernest Gary is presiding, and Solicitor Sease was punctually at his post, but the many friends of Stenographer Campbell will regret to learn that he is sick and was unable to be at his desk.

Solicitor Sease handed out indictments in the following cases:

State vs. Chris Porter, Albert Johnson and Elliott Johnson—larceny.
State vs. Jessie James—larceny of live stock.

State vs. John Kelly—larceny.
State vs. John Brooks—burglary and larceny.

CHARGE TO GRAND JURY.

Judge Gary in delivering the indictments charged the grand jury as follows: Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen of the Grand Jury: It is a time honored custom for the presiding officer to charge the grand jury. Why such is the case I am not exactly able to say, because my experience is that there is no department in the criminal court that comes near to discharging its duty than the grand jury. They need less talk than any other department of the court, but it is, I have said, a custom, and I will carry it out.

I have very little to say. If there is any miscarriage of justice it is not due to the efforts of the grand jury, but more especially to the petit jury. However, I have no special complaint to make of the petit jury. I am a great believer in the jury system, and if there is any miscarriage of justice, it is not the fault of the system, but of those who sit upon the jury, and have no right to do so as the law contemplates, not a defect in the system but in those who administer the system. It is the duty of every good citizen to use his best efforts to suppress crime. The object of the criminal court is to suppress crime. That is why we have assembled here, that is why the tax-payers built this house and organized this court of sessions. It has been the experience of all the English speaking peoples that the most prosperous people are those who suppress crime. Crime and prosperity will not abide in the same community at the same time. If crime prospers, progress and civilization suffer in proportion. If you would have peace, good order, prosperity, and happiness, the most effective way to have it is to punish those who disturb the peace and prosperity and happiness of the State. Society's worst enemy is the man who breaks the law.

It is for your protection and the protection of your neighbor that the rights of you and yours and of the public shall be respected. We do not live upon the theory of the survival of the fittest, where might makes right, but we live under a government the boast of which is that the rights of all are protected. If one citizen takes the life of his neighbor he has done that which the law itself can not do without due process. He has conspired with himself higher than he law, and when that is condoned, you can not hope for a distinguished practitioner that in South Carolina it is easier to acquit a man before a jury having committed the crime of murder than one having committed assault and battery, that it is easier and surer to defend a man who has committed the highest crime known to the law than one who commits assault and battery. If that is the case the law is not at fault, it is the fault of those who pass upon the questions of fact. The constitution of the State requires that jurors shall be between the ages of 21 and 65, of good moral character, and qualified electors. If that section is carried out then I venture the assertion there will be no miscarriage of justice. I have no special complaint to make. Grand juries come nearer to the mark in discharging their duty than any other department of the court. What is the remedy? If crime is stalking in your neighborhood turn your faces sternly against it. If it is the duty of all good citizens to lend their aid to the suppression of crime, how much more is it the duty of the jurists to lend their aid, who are specially charged with the correction of that evil. So set the pace for the petit juries. If you enter upon the discharge of your duties with the determination that crime shall not prosper while you are in office, the petit juries will take up the pace and your influence will be felt throughout this whole county.

It is hard to estimate the results of a miscarriage of justice through sympathy or pity or reward or hope of reward. Who can tell, if you come upon the discharge of your duty and do not discharge it, if you condone crime, the baneful results. The baneful influences cannot be estimated, but a cake of soap will have been sown. Who can say that sooner or later, if the truly guilty are allowed to go free, that you will not become the next victim, or that your wife or innocent babes left behind you, will not sooner or later be behind you. The jury in time of peace is what the sentinel is in time of war. That sentinel who keeps watch in the dead of night while his comrades peacefully sleep, his duties are not more important than yours are, you who are the sentinels for the citizens of this county, who are now reposing under the belief that their interests are being cared for in your hands. Rise to the occasion and set the pace for the preservation of peace and good order in this county. I single out no special county, not this county more than any other. But if by my words I can inspire in you more zeal, then I will have charged what I have undertaken.

The judge then explained the bills which had been handed by the solicitor, and explained the law relating to jury duties. There had been a good deal of trouble this morning in getting witnesses into court, and if this continues he advised them to make mention of it in their presentment and we will try to remedy it. The witness has entered into a contract with the State, he is paid a reasonable amount for his services, and every good citizen should be willing to render this service to his State. It is the duty of every good citizen to do something towards advancing the peace and good order of society.

FURTHER BUSINESS.

The case of the State vs. Alonzo J. Cook and J. A. Bradley—assault and battery with intent to kill was continued. State vs. Will Orr and Jim Rubanks was not pressed.

COURT HOUSE IN A BLAZE.

CAUGHT FROM A DEFECTIVE FLUE IN THE JURY ROOM YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

A Good Deal of Damage Done by Fire and Water—Good Work by the Fire Companies—Court Reconvened in Judge of Probate's Office and Petit Jurors Dismissed Until This Morning.

Yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock the court house caught on fire. Thirteen minutes after the alarm was sounded the Excelsior Fire Company had two streams playing upon the burning building and the fire was under full control.

The fire started from a defective flue just above the ceiling in the jury room on the south wing of the building. It soon spread until between the ceiling and the roof there was one mass of flames. The fire, however, did not burn through on either side, but great volumes of black smoke poured out from under the roof. So thick did the smoke become upon the public square that the business houses on the surrounding blocks could not be seen at all.

All the fire companies responded quickly to the alarm, and some excellent work was done. The hose was taken inside the building and was only a few minutes until the streams were playing directly upon the flames. In fact, it seems almost impossible for any fire within the inclosed area limits of Newberry to gain any headway against the efforts of our fire ladders.

The damage done to the building will not amount to very much. The roof and ceiling were burned and charred pretty badly, and some damage was done by the water.

It is a most fortunate thing that the fire did not occur during a session of the court. The court had adjourned to meet at 3 o'clock, and the fire occurred between 2 and 3 o'clock. When the court reconvened, it was in the office of the judge of probate when the petit jurors were dismissed until this morning at 9 o'clock. The solicitor had had all the indictments to the grand jury, which remained in session in the probate office.

All the books and valuable documents were removed from the offices of the county officers immediately upon the alarm, and none of the records was damaged.

These offices, with the exception of those of the clerk and probate judge were leaking badly and will have to be replastered throughout.

Cure Cancer, Blood Poison, Eating Sores.

Costs Nothing to Try

Blood poison and deadly cancer are the worst and most deep-seated blood diseases on earth, yet the easiest to cure when Botanic Blood Balm is used.
